LILLE GRAND PALAIS | March 25th, 2019

The Co-Pro Pitching Sessions are SERIES MANIA FORUM's oldest and most renowned program. It was conceived to bring together talent from various backgrounds within the audiovisual industry to create incredible series.

Every year, a professional jury selects, for SERIES MANIA FORUM, 16 series proposals amongst hundreds that display creativity, innovation, and narrative perspectives not yet seen.

Creators and producers behind the chosen projects are invited to pitch their series in Lille to a panel of instrumental industry members and potential financiers made up of broadcasters, distributors, producers, and public and private fund directors.

The teams behind these projects are also given the opportunity to have insightful one-on-one meetings with key industry persons.

Finally, a professional jury selects and awards the best project a grant for 50 000 euros.
